Re: Butz v. Lawns Unlimited Ltd. Civ. No. 05-495-JJF

Dear Eric:

I am in receipt of your email note indicating that you are requesting additional time within which to respond to my discovery requests.

As you know, plaintiff's discovery requests were filed September 26th with responses due within 30 days. Out of professional courtesy, I will consent to a 7-day extension of time within which defendant may file a responsive document, but will not agree to any objection, to the discovery request. Also, if defendant fails to reply to the admissions by the response deadline, the admissions will be viewed as admitted.

With this extension, I believe that the deadline for defendant's responsive materials is Monday, November 6th. Since I am preparing to go forward with defendant's deposition on the 13th, it is crucial that the discovery responses be in my hands and I request that you forward the responses overnight or priority mail.

Incidentally, I have not heard from you in response to my letter dated October 23 regarding a stipulation to allow Mr. Michael Butz to attend the upcoming depositions, and discussing possible mediation of my claims.

Cordially,

Renée M. Butz
